Juror

Gary Gordon has an BA degree from Indiana University Northwest and an MFA from the University of Chicago. He is Associate Professor at the Illinois Institute of Art in Chicago, where he teaches foundation art classes.

Gary won Faculty Member of the Year in 2009 and is Faculty Advisor for Kappa Omicron NU National Honors Society. He is also the Curator of the Depot Gallery in Beverly Shores, IN.

Gary had focused on drawing and painting while in school and began his professional career exhibiting 2-D works. More recently he has been exhibiting site specific environmental installations. Selected exhibitions have been at The Lubeznik Center for the Arts in Michigan City, IN and the Krasel Art Center, in St. Joseph, MI.

Art collections include the Fort Wayne Museum of Art, the Joan Flasch Collection of the Flaxman Library at the Art Institute of Chicago, the Brauer Museum of Art and the Lubeznik Center for the Arts.
