May Elections Are Here

Thank you to all our executive board members and committee chair leaders who have helped to make this a fabulous year. We have made many advancements as a group and I would like to see the Illiana Artists' continue to grow as an art group.

I will remain as President of the group if accepted by the group vote. All members who would like to participate in the elections, or would like to step into a leadership role, please attend our meeting on Monday, May 10.

Thank you.
