Illiana Artists Ongoing Exhibit Now Until September 17, 2010

Thank you to all members and guests who arrived in attendance during the Opening Reception for the Illiana Artists Exhibit on August 12, 2010 at the W. F. Wellman Exhibit Hall. The Marketing department at the South Shore Convention and Visitors Authority reported an attendance count of approximately one hundred in total. Congratulations Illiana Artists for a successful event!

The Indiana Welcome Center is a wonderful venue for showcasing the many talents within our group and those of the 119th Street artists and the Hobart Arts League. Thank you to all artists who participated in this event. Our gratitude goes out to our 2nd Vice President, Mary Kuric and Pat Hansen, Treasurer for coordinating the exhibit space with the Marketing department at the South Shore Convention and Visitors Authority. Also, our gratitude goes out to our Secretary, Ann Noldin for coordinating and scheduling the members and guest artists for a successful event showcase.

Exhibit Removal Instructions:

NOTE: Exhibit Removal takes place on Saturday, September 18 and Sunday, September 19 from 8 am to 5 pm.

Illiana Artists will be responsible for taking down and removing artwork from the exhibit hall. All artwork must be removed from the building by 5 pm on Sunday, September 19, 2010. The SSCVA has no available storage space to hold the artwork after the exhibit ends. Artists are responsible for repackaging and removing their artwork.
